Global Senior Scholar Exchange Program

This program provides a one-of-a-kind professional opportunity and collaboration experience for senior global economy member toxicologists and SOT members.

“This opportunity has enabled me to achieve my dream of mentoring graduate students from Nigeria who are now becoming early career scientists.”
—Aina Olubukola Adeogun, 2018 Global Senior Scholar

International Membership

1,500 scientists from 76 different countries are SOT Members.

Travel Fellowships

More than 130 distinguished scientists from 36 underrepresented countries have gained the opportunity to attend the SOT Annual Meeting, Congress of Toxicology in Developing Countries (CTDC), and other scientific meetings.

ToxScholar Outreach Grants

Hundreds of students and faculty have increased involvement in toxicology because of visits with toxicologists.

SOT is dedicated to sustaining the discipline through the recruitment of diverse talent into toxicology.

Global Meeting Support

SOT partners with other toxicological societies around the world to enhance toxicology’s impact.

More than 30 initiatives and meetings to improve global collaboration in toxicology have been supported since 2012.

Developing Country Membership Benefits

Discounted membership dues and assistance programs.

Free Access to Online Continuing Education Courses.

SOT Members from global economy countries enjoy all of the benefits of membership.
