Expanding Outreach and Impact Globally

Travel Fellowships

More than 130 distinguished scientists from 36 underrepresented countries have gained the opportunity to attend the SOT Annual Meeting, Congress of Toxicology in Developing Countries (CTDC), and other scientific meetings.

International Membership

More than 1,500 scientists from 77 different countries are SOT Members.

Global Senior Scholar Exchange Program

This program provides a one-of-a-kind professional opportunity and collaboration experience for senior toxicologists in developing countries and SOT members.

“This opportunity has enabled me to achieve my dream of mentoring graduate students from Nigeria who are now becoming early career scientists.”

—Aina Olubukola Adeogun, 2018 Global Senior Scholar

International ToxScholar Outreach Grants

Hundreds of students and faculty have established collaborations with visiting scholars thus far.

SOT is dedicated to ensuring the development of educational and career opportunities in toxicology around the world.

Global Meeting Support

SOT partners with other toxicological societies around the world to enhance toxicology’s impact.

More than 30 initiatives and meetings to improve global collaboration in toxicology have been supported since 2012.

Developing Country Membership Benefits

Discounted membership dues and assistance programs.

Free Access to Online Continuing Education Courses.

SOT Members from developing countries enjoy all of the benefits of membership.
