

ACROSS

- 3. Name of the chemical company that was responsible for the "not so lovely" adverse effects in Love Canal.
- 7. St. John's school colors, _____ and white
- 8. Famous bay in Japan noted for methyl mercury toxicity.
- 9. Last name of the physician credited with being the Father of Forensic Toxicology
- 11. A nuclear reactor in this town exploded in the former Soviet Union in 1986, releasing large amounts of radioactive materials.
- 13. Snow White could have used a toxicologist because her _____ was poisoned.
- 15. Day of the week that TOX 1101 meets
- 16. Author of "The Jungle," this gentleman did a lot to increase awareness of food safety (last name)
- 18. Of, relating to, or denoting the application of scientific methods and techniques to the investigation of crime.

DOWN

- 1. Official name of the BP oil rig that exploded in 2010 and spilled oil in the Gulf of Mexico.

- 2. Queen of France in the 1500's who used the poor and sick to test her poisons (last name)
- 4. Last name of the woman who was credited with saving the US from the thalidomide disaster by delaying the FDA registration of the drug.
- 5. Father of Toxicology who said "The dose makes the poison"
- 6. The author of Silent Spring who protested the indiscriminate use of pesticides, particularly DDT, in the US (first and last name, no spaces)
- 10. What we've had a lot of since January
- 12. This town in India suffered many deaths and injuries due to release of 40 tons of MIC (methyl isothionate) in 1984.
- 14. Famous philosopher whose death was caused by the poisonous plant Hemlock
- 17. British physician in the 1700s who made a connection between exposure to coal tar derivatives and scrotal cancer (last name)