

Sustainable Chemicals through Contemporary Toxicology

Specialty Section

Our Mission

The SCCT addresses the broader impact of toxicological research to inform decisions that advance safer chemistry throughout the product lifecycle. Additionally, the SCCT supports scientific activities designed to promote the execution and application of toxicological research to reduce the likelihood of regrettable substitution throughout the supply chain through interdisciplinary partnerships.

SCCT Sponsored Events at the SOT 2023

Joint Mentoring Event for Students and Postdocs
Organized by the MSBSS, RASS, SCCT, BTSS, and Mechanisms Specialty Sections in conjunction with the OTA Special Interest Group

When:

Monday, March 20, 7:30 – 9:30 PM

Where:

OMNI Legends Ballroom C

2022-2023 Executive Committee

Margaret H. Whittaker President	Brittany Baisch Vice President	Lauren Brown Vice President Elect	Joanna Klapacz Secretary/Treasurer	Azita Cuevas Councilor 1	Marie Bourgeois Councilor 2	Monika Roy Postdoctoral Representative	Neha Paranjape Graduate Student Representative	Pamela J. Spencer Past President and Councilor

2023-2024 Election Results

Congratulations to the new members!

Vice President-Elect: Damani Parran

Councilor: Monika Roy

The postdoctoral representative position is still open! Please contact past President Pam Spencer (pjspencer@angus.com) if interested.

SCCT Meeting/Luncheon at the SOT Annual Meeting

All SOT meeting attendees are welcome to attend to network and learn more about SCCT over lunch!

When: Monday, March 20, 12:00 – 1:30 PM

Where: Room 104C, Music City Center

To learn more, join and support SCCTSS, scan the QR codes!
OR please visit:

<https://www.toxicology.org/groups/ss/SCCT/index.asp>

<https://www.linkedin.com/company/sustainable-chemicals-through-contemporary-toxicology-specialty-section-sctss/>

2023 SCCT Awards

Graduate Student Best Abstract: Kelly J. Rivenbark

Abstract title

Using green-engineering to develop sorbents for the remediation of benzene and hazardous environmental samples.

Poster details

4360: Poster board: P226;
Wednesday, March 22
10:45 – 12:30 PM

Award sponsor

The Institute for In Vitro Sciences

SCCT Website

SCCT LinkedIn