

American Association of Chinese in Toxicology

Presents

Distinguished Chinese Toxicologist Lecture

Raymond Yang, Ph.D.

"Why is it important to develop 'Computational Toxicology'? Why is it particularly important for Chinese Toxicologists?"

American Association of Chinese in Toxicology

2007 Annual Meeting

Agenda:

- 5:00 to 5:30: Distinguished Chinese Toxicologist Lecture and Award Presentation
Raymond Yang, Ph.D.
"Why is it important to develop 'Computational Toxicology'? Why is it particularly important for Chinese Toxicologists?"
- 5:35 to 6:05: Business meeting
Welcome and opening remark: John Zhang
Treasurer's report: Charles Wang
Membership update: Jia-Sheng Wang
Best Abstract Award presentation: James Kang
Election result and new board announcement: Ballot Counting Committee and James Kang
AACT-SOT-SIG update and new business: James Kang
Closing: James Kang
- 6:15 to 6:30: Novartis Presentation

Presenter: Jeff Hazelette, Executive Director
Title: Introduction of Novartis China and Opportunities for Chinese Toxicologists
- 6:30 to 8:30: Reception Sponsored by SOT and Novartis
Food: Westin's Signature Cheese Display
Grilled herb vegetables and dip and dressing
Chicken satay with spicy soy dipping sauce
Vegetable quesadillas
Assorted finger sandwiches
Beverage: Cash bar

Treasurer's Report

Charles Wang

Best Abstract Awards

Award Committee

Jie Liu

Haizhou Zhang

Qiyu Zhao

Best Abstract Awards

First Place

Fujun Liu, Postdoctoral Fellow, University of Rhode Island

Mentor: Dr. Bingfang Yan

Second Place

Xueqian Wang, Graduate Student, Purdue University

Mentor: Dr. Wei Zheng

Current AACT Board Members

President: John Zhang

President-elect: James Kang

Treasurer: Charles Wang

Secretary: Diana Auyeung-Kim

Council members:

Li-Jie Fu

Jia-Sheng Wang

Guiling Qiao

Li You

Wei Zheng

New AACT Board Members

President-elect:

Council members: