Other Specialty Section 2018-2019 Activities:
Discussion about merging two specialty sections occurred multiple times in 2018-2019 between Toxicology and Exploratory Pathology Specialty Section (TEPPS) and Comparative and Veterinary Specialty Section (CVSS). A vote was held by the membership of both specialty sections, and the membership approved a merger. The two specialty sections voted on 4 different names picked by the councils of both specialty sections. The proposal was sent to SOT council for approval. If approved the two specialty sections will officially merge into Comparative Toxicology, Pathology, and Veterinary Specialty Section (CTPVSS) effective May 1, 2020.
