

Acknowledgements

The Society of Toxicology (SOT) and many other generous supporters have supported the Undergraduate Diversity Program during the 28-year history of the program. The National Institute of General Medical Sciences and the National Institute of Environmental Health Science of the National Institutes of Health, Pfizer, Inc., Environmental Protection Agency, SOT Endowment Fund, and others have generously provided support for this program.

The 2017 Undergraduate Diversity Program has received support from:

National Institutes of Environmental Health Sciences Award Number 1 R13 ES027760-01

Society of Toxicology

Pfizer, Inc.

Eastman Charitable Foundation

NSF International

SRC, Inc.

We also recognize the outstanding efforts of the members of the SOT Committee on Diversity Initiatives. Their dedication and year-round inspiration and work undergird the Undergraduate Diversity Program. Thanks as well to the speakers, mentors, and the many other volunteers who make this program possible.

*The views expressed in written conference materials or publications and by speakers and moderators do not necessarily reflect the official policies of the Department of Health and Human Services; nor does mention of trade names, commercial practices, or organizations imply endorsement by the US Government.